20 Date: June 17, 2011
21 Time: 1:30 p.m.
22 Place: Department A
23 Judge: Magistrate Judge Joseph C. Spero

20 1. On December 6, 2010, trial counsel for plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity
21 Commission, Cindy O'Hara, and trial counsel for defendant Mid-Valley Labor Services, Inc., 22 Douglas Tucker and Amanda Hebesha, (sometimes referred to herein as "the parties") attended a
23 telephonic conference with mediator, Sue Stott (sometimes referred to herein as "the mediator").

24 2. It was determined by the parties and the mediator that in order for successful and 25 meaningful mediation the parties would need additional time to conduct discovery and otherwise
26 prepare for the mediation in this matter.

27 3. As a result, the parties and the mediator agreed to move the mediation from late
28 January 2011 to late March or early April 2011.

1 4. The parties have been in discussion with the mediator and each other concerning a
2 new date for the mediation. However, despite the parties' best efforts, there is still discovery
3 outstanding on which the parties are diligently working to complete prior to the mediation. The 4 parties believe that the outstanding discovery is necessary for a meaningful mediation.

5 5. The parties met and conferred, and were in continual contact with the mediator
6 regarding a mediation date. The parties tentatively set a mediation in early June, prior to the 7 further case management conference. However, the parties have not been able to proceed with a
8 meaningful mediation with the current discovery outstanding.
